Village Bd. Approves Annexation of Crown Realty Subdivision

Attorney Is Instructed to Prepare Ordinance for Adoption

Village Attorney Edward C. Jacobs has been instructed by the village board to draw up an ordinance calling for the annexation of the new subdivision of the Crown Realty Co. north of State Line rd. east of Rte. 21.

A gentlemen's agreement was reached Friday evening between the board members and Max Horwitz, president of the realty company, whereby the new subdivision will be annexed if the construction of homes meets the new Antioch zoning law.

It is understood that the board will permit single-wall type of construction for summer cottages in the lake region, but will call for regularly constructed houses of certain square-foot area elsewhere. No one will be permitted to live in garages or shacks while regular homes are being built and no basement dwellings under the same circumstances will be permitted.

The building and zoning law are yet to be enacted, but it is said that the requirements will be slightly less strict than the county zoning law.

Annexation of the new subdivision will necessitate the drilling of the new well, already planned by the village, at an early date.

The matter of annexation will be brought up at the next meeting of the board Feb. 3.

Install New Seats in School Auditorium, Open House Planned

Seats for the local high school auditorium are being placed this week. American Seating company engineers report that the entire job will be completed this week.

When the entire installation is complete, the auditorium will seat 820 people. The seats are done in colors to harmonize with the auditorium decorating scheme of soft, warm tan, and green colors. The upholstered chairs are deep red long mohair.

The board of education has tentatively set April 8 for a general open house and dedication ceremonies. The open house will enable citizens and friends to inspect the remodeling done in the old building and the new addition construction.

Both High and Grade School Elections to Call for 3 Candidates

High School Board to Be Increased to Seven Members

Antioch Township High school will have a seven-man board instead of five through the regular election set for April 11.

Under the provision of the state law all high school districts having but five members on their boards will add two more at a time when the term of one member only expires.

This year the term of Walter Hill expires and this means that not only his post must be filled, but two additional members must be chosen. The final date for filing will be March 21.

Antioch Grade School district already having a seven-man board, nevertheless must select three members because of the resignation of one member this year before his term expired.

Wendell Nelson resigned when he moved to Lake Villa and Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky was appointed to fill the office until the next election. In the April election the successor will be elected for only two years.

Two members whose terms expire are Arthur Larson and Henry Rentner. Whoever succeeds them will have three-year terms.

Forms for Landlords' Registration are at Local Postoffices

The Waukegan area office of the Office of Rent Stabilization has placed in the local post office for the convenience of landlords, the necessary forms and instruction sheets required to register his dwelling unit on form D-801 if it is located in Lake County, Illinois and is in one of the following categories:

- (1) Was newly constructed and completed since January 31, 1947;
- (2) Is an additional housing unit created by a substantial alteration or remodeling since January 31, 1947;
- (3) Was used for non-residential purposes the last time it was occupied before February 1, 1945 and January 31, 1947;
- (4) Was built between February 1, 1945 and January 31, 1947 and never rented before July 1, 1947 other than the landlord's immediate family.

Form D-803 is used only for rooms in rooming houses, boarding houses, dormitories, tourist homes, private homes and for accommodation in motor courts, trailers, trailer spaces and hotels.

Previous maximum rents continue in effect for those accommodations of a class that were already under rent control in January 5, 1953 and so registered.

It will be noted the base date for the new filing is 8-1-52 and the effective date is 1-6-53. The Federal regulations require all registrations to be filed within 45 days from the effective date. In Lake County, Illinois February 20, 1953 will be the deadline.

Additional information or clarification can be obtained by contacting the Area Rent Office at 325 West Washington st., Waukegan, Ill., or by phoning Majestic 3-0647.

Plan New Building

The Antioch Grade School board of education met with the architects, Ganster and Hennighausen January 20 and planned the new addition to the school so plans and specifications can be prepared.

It is expected that the specifications will be ready for the reception of bids the last of March or the first week in April.

Antioch Nips Maryville, Will Meet Wauconda and Libertyville Next

Frosh - Sophomore Quintet Beat Maryville by 52-34 Score

After having added Maryville Academy of Des Plaines as their ninth victim the Antioch Sequoits will undertake a busy week end by playing Wauconda Township here tomorrow evening and Libertyville-Fremont Township High school there Saturday evening.

Antioch defeated Maryville 57 to 47 Friday night, applying their usual persistent teamwork and winning in three of the four quarters. Incidentally Maryville ranks second in the Catholic league, and is a good team.

The Sequoits took the first quarter 13 to 8 and ended the half 26 to 19. The visitors came back much stronger in the second half and tied for the quarter bringing the score to 41 to 34. Antioch topped them in the final quarter, however 16 to 13.

Bob Floyd led from the field for Antioch with 13 points while for Maryville Nagle with nine foul goals was high point man.

The Sequoits are not expecting too much trouble tomorrow evening from Wauconda which has yet to win a conference game. The Soph-Frosh team which some say can give the varsity a good battle, was able to beat Wauconda recently with most of the varsity there playing on the Sophomore team.

The varsity will be given a good test Saturday night at Libertyville, however. A North Suburban team is the only team to have beaten Antioch this year and Libertyville is in that conference.

The summary for last Friday's game is as follows:

Antioch 57

Antioch 13 13 15 16-57
Maryville 8 11 15 13-47

The Antioch frosh-soph quintet also maintained its winning pace with a 52-34 verdict over the Maryville underclassmen. Sharing point honors for the victors were Mike Haviland, Warren Brownlee and Fred Clarke with 14, 13 and 11 points.

A basketball scoreboard will be available for use for the remainder of the season at the local high school. The scoreboard presented by the Class of 1940 has been in the process of repair since it was mounted in the gym in October. As yet it is not ready for use. However, a scoreboard has been borrowed from the All American Scoreboard company until the old board is repaired or replaced. If necessary, the student body will make arrangements to purchase a new board.

Robert Scott and his mother, Mrs. Fred Scott, drove to Pardeeville, Wis., Tuesday and got the All American board so that it could be mounted for use Friday night.

Curnes Enters Race For Town Collector

Clarence F. Spiering Files for Justice of the Peace

Two candidates for township office have filed petitions during the week, with William Curnes, Depot street, Antioch, filing for town tax collector and Clarence F. Spiering, filing for justice of the peace. No additional candidates have filed for assessor or constable, although Robert Wright, Old Hickory road, has been mentioned as a possible candidate for one of the five J. P. berths.

Curnes, who opposes incumbent John L. Horan for the town collector's job, has been a resident of Antioch for the past 17 years, moving here in 1935, and has had a varied career. He operated a brokerage business on the Chicago Board of Trade for fifteen years, has been in the lumber and grain business at Osceola, Iowa, and operated a manufacturing plant here which produced duplicator supplies until 1940, when the business was sold and he retired.

Since that time he has been occupied in subdividing land on Depot street which he purchased before coming here in 1934, and has also erected several houses in the subdivision.

This is his first venture into politics, although he has been a life-long Republican.

Horan Collector Since 1940

John L. Horan, 407 Orchard st., Antioch, has been Antioch township's first and only tax collector. When the job was established by state law in 1940, Horan was the only candidate. Some difficulty was experienced in establishing this town office, since the law applied only to counties of large size, and the county treasurers were reluctant to turn over the books to town collectors. For this reason the office was not allowed to function for the first two years.

Horan has been a life long resident of Antioch, having been connected with the printing and publishing business since his grade school days. He was employed by A. B. Johnson, owner of the Antioch News while still in grade school and worked his way up from a "devil's" job to part ownership and finally complete ownership of the paper and plant. He sold in 1928 to the present owners, and has been employed in various plants as a printer since.

No opposition has appeared for any of the other offices although plenty of time still remains for filing of petitions. Last day for filing is February 16.

Margaret Drom Donaldson Funeral at Polo Jan. 21

She is survived by one brother, Edwin Drom of Brookfield. Two sisters, Miss Grace Drom and Mrs. Anna (Drom) Nielsen, both of Antioch, preceded her in death.

Alert Phone Operator Credited With Rescue Of Cermak Children

Child Reaches Phone Thru Smoke Filled House in Calling Help

Mrs. Ed Carney, Antioch telephone operator, is credited with saving the lives of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cermak, Jr., of Harden st. by her alertness in calling for help when the children were overcome with smoke Tuesday night.

Charlene, 10, oldest of the three children, had become aroused at 1 a. m. by the smoke filled house and managed to get to the telephone, asking the operator, Mrs. Carney for her parents at Smart's Country House where they were attending a banquet of real estate men and their wives. Then she fainted.

Mrs. Carney, sensing that something was wrong when the child's voice couldn't be heard any more, not only called the parents and urged them to hasten home, but called Capt. Herman Holbek of the Antioch Rescue Squad.

The Cermaks were on the point of leaving for home when they received the call and they and Holbek arrived about the same time. They found Charlene on the floor with the telephone receiver clutched in her hand. The other two children, Melvin, 9, and Jane, 2, were unconscious upstairs in their beds.

The three were taken next door to the Frank Stevens home and revived through first aid methods.

It was discovered that although the day previous a man had been employed to clean the furnace, he had failed to clean the pipe leading to the chimney and it had filled tight with soot, backing all of the smoke and fumes into the house. Much damage was done to the furnishings through smoke.

Freshman Cagers Lose At Palatine Monday

The freshman basketball team lost a hard-fought cage battle at Palatine Monday night. The Paposes were on the short end of a 35-33 score when the final gun sounded.

Although the Antioch youngsters were on the little end of the scoring, they did show great improvement in the all 'round game. Jim Fish led the scoring for the locals with 11 points. Jim Bown and Frank Walsh had 9 and 7 points respectively.

Score by quarters:
Palatine ..... 3 17 7 8 35
Antioch ..... 8 11 10 4 33

Village Officials To Run For Re-election In Election April 21

First Woman Candidate For Trustee in Race

Contrary to rumor and premature hearsay concerning Antioch's coming village elections, all but one of the present village board members and officials will be candidates for re-election when Antioch citizens go to the polls on Tuesday, April 21, to elect a village president, three members of the board of trustees, a village clerk and a village treasurer.

All incumbents have indicated that they will be candidates for re-election with the exception of Arthur Rosenfeldt who has resigned his position at the Antioch Garage and gone to Florida where he will make his home permanently, according to present plans. Rosenfeldt has been a member of the board for many years and his loss will be felt since his extensive knowledge of construction and especially plumbing qualified him to take care of the building inspection job for the village.

It is believed that members of the present city government will be able to obtain a candidate with specialized knowledge of the construction business to replace him, and the name of John Blackman, building contractor has been mentioned in this respect.

A petition, carrying the names of a complete slate, will be circulated at once. Candidates will be Jim McMullen, for village president; Clarence Shults, for clerk; Mrs. Elmer Hunter, treasurer; Arthur Hawkins, Sr., and Edgar Simonsen, trustees. These, along with the one candidate yet to be chosen for trustee, will complete the slate.

Mrs. C. E. Hennings in Race
A different note was injected into the coming campaign today by the announcement that Mrs. C. E. Hennings will be a candidate for trustee. It is believed that Mrs. Hennings will be the first woman to seek trusteeship in Antioch.

Mrs. Hennings said that she felt that while men had been doing a good job managing village affairs maybe a change would work to the advantage of all. She added that it was time that women took their rightful place in political and civic affairs.

March 2 Deadline

Monday, March 2, is the last day for filing of petitions of nomination for village office, and any person may have his name placed on the ballot by circulating a petition and obtaining the required number of signatures. Petition blanks may be obtained from Village Clerk Clarence Shults.

Economic Highlights

J. A. Livingston, a syndicated writer on economic affairs, recently devoted a column to the 1953 business outlook. He quoted Ralph J. Cordner, president of General Electric, as saying, "I believe our business in 1953 will be as good as, maybe even better than, this year. I expect that, sometime in the second quarter . . . we'll have to start selling harder than at any time since the end of the war."

It may seem something of an anomaly that top business leaders believe they must do a real selling job in the near future even though the average personal income of Americans is at the highest level in history. Mr. Livingston cites several reasons why this should be true. One is that the prospect of more inflation is no longer an incentive to buy—prices have varied very little in late months. Another is that personal income, after taxes are taken out, is not rising as fast as it did in '50 and '51. A third reason is that "real income" per person—which takes into account the effect of inflation—has hardly changed in the past three years. A fourth reason is that a larger proportion of our incomes now goes for basic necessities than was formerly the case. A fifth reason is that savings have increased—from $99,000,000,000 just before the war ended, exclusive of currency and demand deposits, to $140,000,000,000 now. Moreover, as Mr. Livingston points out, the people who have the savings also have, for the most part, postwar autos and appliances and other such possessions. They aren't eagerly awaiting a chance to buy costly articles as they were when the war ended.

So, as Mr. Livingston phrases it, "American industry has got to go out and unloose those inert dollars. That is, raise the propensity to spend: Sell."

Another business forecast came from the National Retail Dry Goods Association. This says that for the next eight or nine months the economy should reach and hold new highs. The test will arrive some time early in 1954, when defense and other government spending is expected to decline.

These opinions are probably typical. They represent a middle-of-the-road view, while at the extremes are a few optimists and pessimists who predict, on the one hand, that things will continue to get better and better indefinitely or, on the other hand, that a really big bust is inevitable.

That the election gave business a boost in morale goes without saying. And so, for the most part, have the appointments to top jobs that Mr. Eisenhower has announced so far. The cabinet is heavily staffed with men of the widest business experience, and a profound knowledge of business problems and methods of operation. These men aren't expected to give business any undue favors, but they naturally will be sensitive to policies that may hurt or help the business community.

Business leaders also have high hopes that future legislation will be more sympathetic to their problems and plans. As an example, there is reason to believe that substantial cuts will be made before very long in the excess profits tax which, as now constituted, digs extremely deeply into earnings and hampers business' ability to expand and improve its plant along with its ability to pay dividends to the owners.

All in all, the educated guessers are taking a reasonably sanguine view of the economic future.

Grass Roots Opinions

CARTHAGE, ILL., REPUBLICAN: "A little more than a century and a half is not a very long time in the history of man, and the principle of free speech, worship, press and assembly, the right of due process of law and trial by jury, security against unlawful search and seizure and protection against cruel and unusual punishments is still a somewhat revolutionary idea. The struggles of men in many parts of the world today are for just such principles. We in America who regard these rights as part of our heritage should remember that preserving the documents does not preserve the ideals. Only a strong and alert, freedom loving people can do that."

DENVER, COLO., MINING RECORD: "Our national problem is to restore a sound currency. Inflation does more than levy a tax on every housewife's food basket; it eats away at every undertaking of the nation and in the extremity will sap the economic strength upon which . . . our real defense rests. We have had 20 years of a slowly depreciating currency and seven years of a rapidly rotting currency. The new president has no greater task than to choose a man who can, and who will give the country once more a sound money."

NELIGH, NEB., LEADER: "The growth of industry-wide bargaining, together with compulsory unionism, have already aroused many of our people—including the workers themselves—to the dangers inherent in what is rapidly tending toward labor fascism."

followed by the business meeting of the group. Important to be present.

TWO TURBINES are quicker than One

WE raised our eyebrows the first time the engineers told us about it.

A new Dynaflo Drive? Better than the one that over a million and a third people are so happy with?

That's right, the engineers assured us. A new Dynaflo that's just as smooth, just as simple to operate—but far faster and quieter on getaway, and a great deal more efficient.

This, we told ourselves, we have to see. And we did.

IN 50 GREAT YEARS

Enter GENERAL MOTORS $194,000 BETTER HIGHWAYS CONTEST
See Your Buick Dealer for contest blanks and full information

We tried the new Golden Anniversary Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo Drive*—and mister, it's spectacular!

As before, no gears ever shift in this wonder drive.

As before, you have infinite smoothness through every speed range—feel wonderfully fresh and relaxed even after a long day's drive.

But on getaways you can soar to cruising speed in less than a half dozen seconds—and with lullaby quiet.

At every speed range you have more efficient power transfer. Acceleration is increased 20%, but with fewer engine revolutions—which means you get going quicker, with less engine speed, less getaway sound.

What works these wonders is a new kind of engineering which places two turbines instead of one in the Dynaflo transmission. At the same time, fewer parts—four elements instead of five—simplify the unit even more.

But there's more than just this sensational Twin-Turbine Dynaflo to be had in the 1953 Buicks.

There's new power—including the world's most advanced V8 Engine in SUPERS and ROADMASTERS. There's a still finer Million Dollar Ride. There's superb new comfort and handling ease, and a host of other advances—87 in all.

Bob Taylor To Head Lakeland Players In '53

Robert Taylor, of the Darnaby Shoe store, was elected president of the Lakeland Players along with Marion Rigby, vice-president; Arlene Nelson, 2nd vice-president; Annette Steiber, treasurer, and Marilyn Hagen, publicity chairman. The election was held at a recent meeting at the home of Marlin Hagen.

A drive for new members is currently being carried on by the club, and several new members have been obtained. Officers of the club explain that all members are not required to be actors, that there are many other interesting things which have to do with production of a play. These include many jobs with opportunity for self-expression and include lighting, scenery, props, and advertising.

In addition to producing several plays each year the Players hold two regular meetings each month, one devoted to business, the other purely social in nature. Also the club holds an annual picnic and attends several of the best plays produced in Chicago each year.

Library News

Carl Sandburg's "Always the Young Strangers" is the story of the poet's boyhood in Galesburg, Illinois, where he was born in 1878. There were people still living in Galesburg who remembered Abraham Lincoln and the poet's interest in Lincoln dates from that time. That is a nostalgic story of an era that has vanished as well as an account of Sandburg's beginnings and of his Swedish immigrant family.

"Always the Young Strangers" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of James E. Kopriwa. One of the greatest of books of Bible study has just been revised and enlarged for reissue. It is Mary Ellen Chase's "The Bible and the Common Reader" which explains the origins of the Bible, tells the story of the King James version and a brief but vivid history of the Hebrew people. She then discusses selected passages, interpreting them both as inspiration and as literature. "The Bible and the Common Reader" was purchased in memory of Mrs. Mary Smart.

The group is planning to send representatives to the mid-winter institute at Woodstock Feb. 7. The meeting will be held from 9:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. and those planning to attend are to notify Roberta Jach as soon as possible. Registration will be $2.

Striving to increase the number of active members the M. Y. F. has started an evangelism campaign through two teams led by Bob Cain and Eugene Baethke. Through point system of achievement Cain's team is now leading 72 to 65. The losing team will provide the winners a party.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

That a genuine and pure affection for God and all mankind fulfills the Commandments and establishes the true incentive for living, will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 1. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be LOVE.

The Golden Text is from Jeremiah (2:24) "Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love" (Jer. 31:3; 1 John 4:7, 8).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"The starting-point of divine Science is that God, Spirit, is All-in-all, and that there is no other might nor Mind,—that God is Love, and therefore He is divine Principle. All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love" (p. 275).

The DAY of the IRON HORSE

A CENTURY OR SO AGO THE IRON HORSE ROLLED PROUDLY WEST ACROSS THE FLAT LANDS, BELCHING WHITE RAGS OF STEAM AND SHOWERING SPARKS—AN AWESOME SIGHT, STRADDLING RIVERS, TUNNELING MOUNTAINS, RUNNING OUT OVER PRAIRIES, THE DURABLE AND POWERFUL STEAM ENGINE HELPED OPEN UP THE CONTINENT.

3. LIST IN ORDER THE ROAD SURFACES WHICH REQUIRE THE ABOVE STOPPING DISTANCES:
A. GLARE ICE
B. DRY CONCRETE
C. PACKED SNOW

1. Yes, each driver training student at 278 Illinois and Indiana high schools gets 8 hours behind-the-wheel instruction in a dual controlled car with a trained teacher in the front seat. The Chicago Motor Club reports that since the war 67,000 teenagers have been trained to drive in this area.

3. Glare ice is the slipperiest surface. You need 159 feet to stop after applying brakes. When wet, glare ice is even worse. Packed snow requires 69 feet for you to halt. Dry concrete has a stopping distance of 21 feet. The above distances are projected at 20 m.p.h.

Uncle Sam Says

This is the time we honor the birth date of one of our greatest Americans, George Washington. Properly called "The Father of His Country," our first President revealed sound judgment in everything he undertook. And one of these wonderful traits was thrift. Every American should hold fast to that habit by saving—every payday—a part of his earnings. ## "Birding"

The L-19, nick-named the "Bird-dog," is the Army's newest and best two-place, fixed wing aircraft. It is an observation plane used primarily for artillery, infantry and armored units. The Army also has an L-3, World War II observation plane, and an L-18, both of which are being replaced rapidly by the L-19.

Cinnamon Drops

A jar of cinnamon drops has many delightful uses. When making apple jelly add a few to the juice after it has begun to boil; it gives a new spicy flavor and a beautiful color. A few added to the juice in which apples are baked gives the apples a beautiful color and a delightful flavor.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

Q. I realize there's just no way to cure a cold. But isn't there something I can do about aching bones, a runny nose, and all this sneezing and coughing?

A. You're right—there's no sure cure. But you'll recover from your cold more comfortably if you follow these rules. If at all possible, go to bed when you feel a cold coming on and stay there for twenty-four hours. If you can't go to bed, take it easy. Don't exert yourself. Every three hours on the first day, and two or three times a day thereafter while the cold hangs on, take the following mixture: To the juice of 1 fresh lemon, add 1/2 glass of water and 1/2 teaspoon baking soda. Drink as foaming quarts. Follow a sound health regime: eat lightly of nourishing food. Drink plenty of liquids. Try to isolate yourself as much as possible. And, remember, if the cold persists, or if there is fever, by all means call your doctor!

Still Time to Send in Christmas Seal Contributions, Says Chairman

Because some Christmas Seal Sale letters may have been overlooked among other Christmas mail, reminder cards will be mailed out next week to Lake county residents who have yet to acknowledge the letters. Arne W. Makela, county seal-sale chairman for the Lake County Tuberculosis association, said today. We are certain that most of those who have delayed answering their Christmas Seal letter merely have let it slip their minds.

This year's Christmas Seal Sale, conducted by the Lake County Tuberculosis association, opened Nov. 17 and closed officially on Christmas day, but Makela stressed that it is not too late to make returns as they will be counted on this year's sale until the close of the association's fiscal year on March 31.

Makela also made public a letter received by the association which said, "I wish to express my most sincere thanks for the wonderful work you people are doing. Most especially for the service which helped me to receive the proper care, and for which I shall forever be grateful. From the X-ray on the mobile unit, it was found that I needed to have an operation right away. This was done and I am now back to work, thanks to you wonderful people."

This letter was accompanied by a contribution to the association which boosted the seal sale total to $43,178.70.

Please—Don't All Hit the Road at Once!

If every car and truck owner in the state of Illinois tried to go for a ride on the same Sunday afternoon, there would be a vehicle every 7 yards on every paved street and highway in the state.

Fortunately, the odds are against this happening, since the average motorist spends only about 25 "days" a year in his car.

Estimates of American automobile usage and driver habits show that the average motorist drove 9,000 miles last year. At his average pace of 30 miles an hour, this totals 300 hours, or 25 daylight driving days. This is only 6.8 per cent of the daylight hours in a year.

The state's motor vehicle registration today is at its highest mark in history and will probably reach an estimated 2,854,000 early this year. Hard-surfaced road mileage in both rural and urban areas of the state is 12,167, which is also a new high.

Pedersen Bros. Bring Comedy Artists Here For Free Public Show

Flo and Barney Dorsey will be a featured attraction on the vaudeville-variety show to be presented by Pedersen Bros. Saturday at the Antioch Grade school free of charge as a token of appreciation to all their friends and customers of Antioch and vicinity.

Known throughout the profession as the "South Pacific Screwballs," Flo and Barney Dorsey present the most hilarious funfest to be seen in vaudeville. Their impressions of the classics played on violin and guitar, their unique singing and wacky comedy antics will keep the audience doubled up with laughter from start to finish. The climax of their act depicting the "nightmare flight" of an airplane through enemy territory hits a really new high in insanity and mirth.

Also featured on the show are such outstanding vaudeville personalities as Carl Dennis, world famous magician and illusionist; Chuck Roberts, "The Juggling Jester," Wes Usher, a terrific harmonica humorist; and Denise, pretty young dancer from eastern network TV success.

The performance will start at 8 p. m., and according to all advance reports it is a show that no one will want to miss. For this reason Pedersen Bros. have urged that those who wish to get a good seat should get to the Antioch Grade school as early as possible Saturday and by all means bring the entire family for a fine evening's entertainment.

Contributor's Section

Today, we boldly lift a verse from Howard Biggers' book of Neighboring Poems. We feel it is apropos:

The old home-town is a sacred place,
With its memories, gay and sad.
Where you made your start in the game of life
As a happy and carefree lad.
If gray has covered your sky, once blue,
And the things you strived for,
lost to view;
It's good to meet with those friends still true,

WHEN YOU VISIT THE OLD HOME TOWN.

Nostalgic Memories:

The Duchess and I have just returned from our old home-town, where we attended the obsequies of an old friend. Driving back thru the snow-covered countryside, we fell to pondering and comparing City and Small-town funerals. Now in the City, only close friends visit the mortuary the night before the funeral, and sign the book. Possibly the next day most of them will attend the services. Then too, within a few hours after the OBIT notice appears in the daily papers, phone calls from perfect strangers begin to come in, asking if one has any old clothes for sale. Of course, the undertaker always sends an elaborate limousine to convey the family of the deceased, and THAT'S THAT. But in the country-town? What a difference. The moment word gets around, neighbors begin to drop in . . . bringing with them all kinds of foodstuffs. Cakes, pies, pastries (all home-made), plus meats and vegetables. Always more than enough to feed the family and all out-of-town guests. As a general rule neighbor womenfolk just walk in and take over the relit's kitchen. Now flowers at the funeral home may not be too profuse, but you can be certain contributors will be. Some sprays will have from ten to twenty names appended. Everyone desires to contribute. . . . everyone in the village, that is. After the funeral they all return to the home for coffee and cake. That's a MUST! (The family would feel offended if you failed to show up.) Neighbor women have been preparing things while the services were being conducted. YES, SIR! Come to think of it, it's nice to live in a small town . . . NICE TO DIE THERE, TOO.

Your Income Tax

By Ernest J. Sauber
Director of Internal Revenue
First District of Illinois

(This is the fourth of a series of articles by Ernest J. Sauber, Director of Internal Revenue for the First Collection District of Illinois, presenting the most important facts pertaining to your 1952 Federal Income Tax return. This article deals with compensation for personal services to an employer.)

Everyone having a gross income of $800 or more in 1952 must file a Federal Income Tax return. This applies to all individuals whether citizens or residents of the United States.

Gross income includes, in general, compensation for personal and professional services, business income, compensation for personal and professional services, business income, profits from sales and dealings in property, interest, rent, dividends and gains derived from any source whatever. More simply, gross income is all wealth flowing into a taxpayer which is not statutorily exempt or a return of capital.

Wages and Salaries

In this article, attention is focused on compensation for personal services—that is, the type of income earned by rendering personal services to an employer, or the income received by working for someone else.

Such income, of course, includes wages, salaries, commissions, bonuses, the value of board and lodging, tips and other kinds of compensation used by an employer to pay an employee for personal services.

Generally speaking, income is reported in the year received unless the taxpayer is on an accrual basis, in which case income is taken into account when it is earned.

Compensation in Kind

Compensation received by employees may be in the form of goods, groceries, or services of any kind. The important thing is that it be received for services rendered or work performed. When personal services are paid for with property other than cash, the fair market value of such property must be included in the recipient's gross income.

Amounts Withheld

Gross income means your total taxable income. This means that all income which is not specifically exempt, must be included in your return, even though it may be offset by expenses and other deductions. On the other hand, exempt income should be omitted from your return altogether.

Although tax is withheld by employers, the law requires the employee to report the total income received for personal services rendered.

When the employer deducts taxes, insurance, union dues, savings bond subscriptions, social security, pension fund contributions, Community Chest, or other items from the employees' pay, these amounts are still part of the employees' compensation. The law requires the taxpayer to report his total compensation in the amount that would have been paid if the employer had not made any deductions.

Government Employees

The salaries of all employees or officials of the United States Government are taxed the same as in the case of any other individual. Compensation of employees of a State or any of its political subdivisions, is subject to tax. Federal Civil Service and other employees are required to include in their wages or salaries, the amounts withheld from their compensation for the retirement fund. The amounts so withheld are regarded as credits for the benefit of the employees.

Tips and Gratuities

Payments for special services such as tips and gratuities, must be included in gross income. The law requires the taxpayer to include in his wages all tips, gratuities, bonuses, and similar payments whether he gets them from a customer or his employer. Legally these are not gifts even though people sometimes erroneously call them by that name.

Income of Clergymen

Clergymen receive money from different sources, many of which provide taxable income. These sources include salary, marriage fees, baptismal offerings and amounts for conducting funeral services. However, if the money is paid to the church, the income is not taxable.

Meals and Living Quarters

In cases where, in addition to salary, an employee receives meals or quarters as compensation, their value to the employee is taxable income, unless they are furnished for the convenience of the employer. (continued on following page)

Your Income Tax.....

More specifically, the value of meals and lodging furnished by an employer is not taxable to the employee if they are not compensatory to him. If the employee is required to accept meals and lodging in order to perform his work properly, and this activity occurs when the employee is subject to immediate service twenty-four hours a day, or when he cannot obtain quarters and meals elsewhere without materially interfering with his duties, the value of such meals and lodging is not taxable to the employee. Examples of such nontaxable cases are board and lodging furnished to domestics required to live in the employer's home and supper money paid to employees working overtime.

Compensation of Minors

A minor child is taxable on his income in the same manner as any adult. But no part of the minor's income is taxable to the parent. The parent does not include the minor's income in his (parent's) return.

Reimbursed Expenses

If the employer provides the employee an expense account or otherwise reimburses him for money spent in connection with his work, other than travel expenses, the employee should add these payments to his wages and then subtract his actual expenses but not more than the reimbursement. Any allowable expense in excess of the reimbursed amount must be treated as "OTHER EXPENSES" and itemized on Page 3 of Form 1040 under the heading "Miscellaneous." Reimbursed expenses cannot be deducted from wages in computing adjusted gross income if Form 1040-A (yellow form) is used.
